PAY-LESS FOUNDATION OFFERS GRANT WRITING WORKSHOP

The Pay-Less Markets Community Foundation will hold its 4th Annual Grant Writing Workshop at the Multi-Purpose Building of Guam Community College. Participants can choose to attend either Friday, September 18, or Saturday, September 19. Workshop topics will focus on understanding public and private grants and how to decipher a grant announcement; provide a format to develop your basic proposal template; and review strategies that address writing style and content when reviewing proposals.

The Community Foundation prides itself on working to build our communities' capacity and is offering this grant writing workshop for the fourth year to target novice grant writers and those who wish to review their skills in seeking and/or writing proposals for public or private grants. Those who participated in last year's workshop noted: "The step-by-step instructions were very helpful" and "presentations were thorough".

Applications are available at all Pay-Less Markets Customer Service Counters until Tuesday, September 15. Cost for is $25 per person and includes workshop materials and lunch. For more information, call 477-9266.
